👤 PROFILE

Have a minimal knowledge about Web Development, we specifically using C++ Language to develop and run a certain program. I think next year, were about to study about Python Language. I'm not that good in software programming because I preferred computer hardware, but I found my course exciting and interesting because we studying both software and hardware. Last semester, I'm one of the Academic Achievers and Dean's Lister in our block. Since this month is the end of our school year, I'm looking for work while I'm taking our vacation to support my personal and help my family to our financial needs. I want to have a work experience also, to develop my communication skills and to improve myself. I'm seeking for my personal and character development, I want to experience life to enhanced my skills and my collecting more knowledge.

📁 EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

On Call Waitress at Alphaland Makati, Makati City
December 2018 — January 2019

I am one of the backer of my friend, since he was working regularly to that company, they need extra crew to manage the reserve site and the upcoming events, since it was in the month of December. Have experience in serving and being a crew for the mean time. Trained in under pressure work, and able to manage and communicate to the customers.
